

ENERGY EFFICIENCY AND SUSTAINABLE ENERGY BOARD

How Do We Get to 25 x 25?

A Panel Discussion on NH Renewable Energy

Friday, April 9, 2010

9:15 – 11 a.m.

Legislative Office Building, Room 302-304, Concord

Purpose

A candid and forward-looking discussion on the challenges and opportunities for renewable energy in New Hampshire

Panelists

Scott Brown, founder and CEO of New Energy Capital, an investment company which has successfully invested in biofuels, renewable power generation, and on-site cogeneration.

Susan Geiger, attorney at Orr & Reno, representing energy and telecommunications interests; a former NH Public Utilities Commissioner

Gary Long, president of PSNH, New Hampshire's largest electric utility; member of the NH climate Change Task Force and the NH Energy and Climate Collaborative

Steve Walker, founder and president of New England Wood Pellet, the largest manufacturer of wood pellets fuels in the northeastern US.; member of NH Energy and Climate Collaborative

Moderator

Dick Ober, EESE Board Chairman

Format

Opening remarks – 10 minutes each (40 minutes)

Follow-up from moderator to encourage interaction among panelists (20 minutes)

Questions/discussion from EESE Board members (25 minutes)

Questions from audiences (15 minutes)